“Our mission is to help SAP customers make the most of their investments in SAP.”

Why join INDUS?

INDUS (Indian Users of SAP) is the SAP user group for the Indian sub-continent that provides an opportunity to the SAP customers to gain access to information. INDUS also acts as a source of knowledge where SAP customers learn about the SAP product & services and how the peers are using them. It also provides a platform where SAP customers are updated about the changes that SAP is bringing to the market.

INDUS is one of the fastest growing independent communities, having more than 850 corporate members with more than 3500 individuals, representing members

Benefits of becoming an INDUS member

Joining INDUS will benefit both the company as well as the individual. Through creating invaluable connections, networking, access to variety of resources and updates on the innovative ideas, members will get an outstanding return on investment.

Collaborate

We will work diligently to create opportunities for our members to collaborate with each other and with different teams from SAP to ensure that there is a constant flow of ideas and knowledge about SAP solutions and how to use them effectively.

Co-Innovate

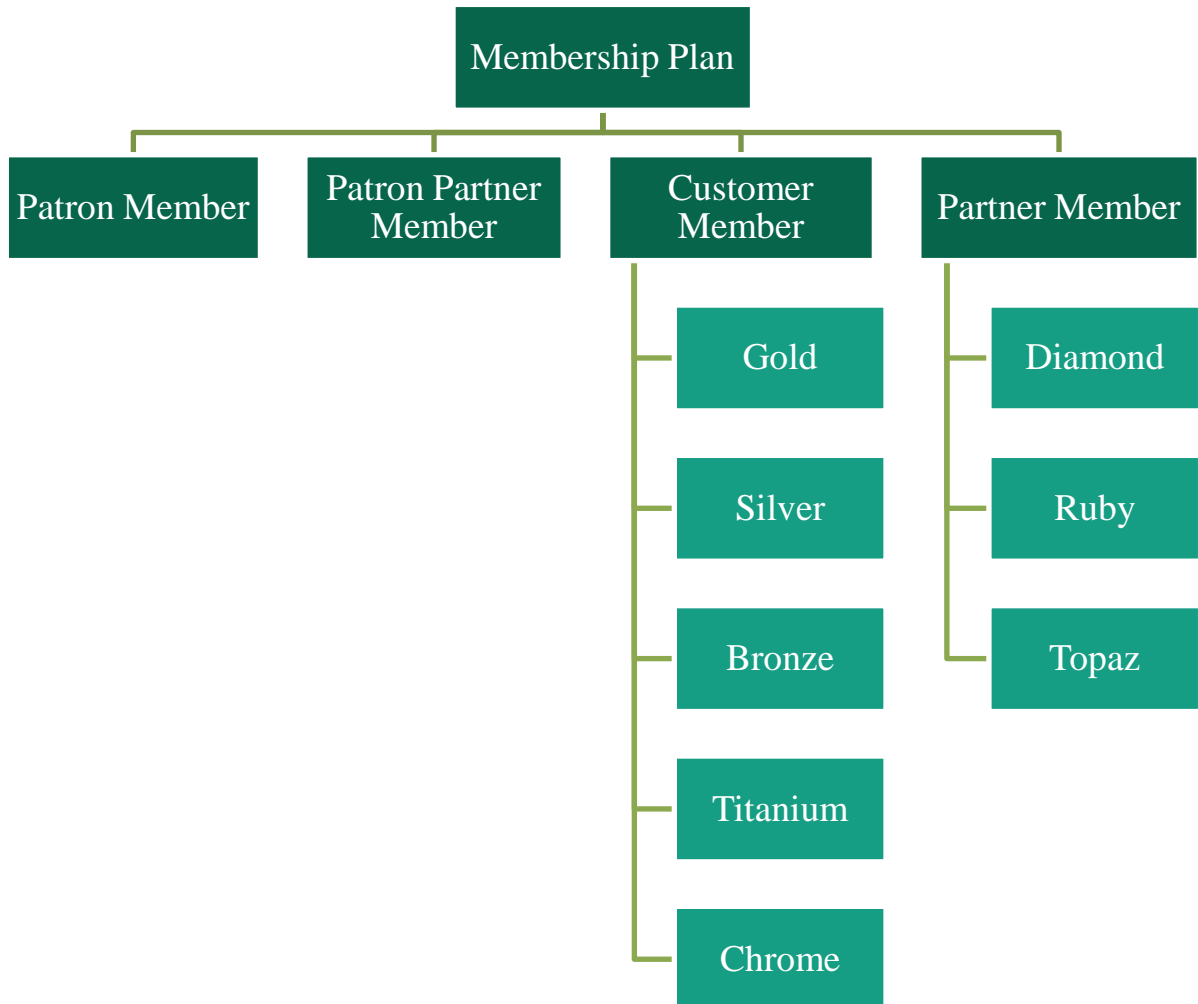

We will create opportunities for our members to work with SAP and its partner ecosystem to identify common issues and co-innovate to address them.

Influence

We will work with SAP to identify and influence its product (present and future) and how we work with each other.
